

Jeff Warner

CDSS Lifetime Contribution Award events

Jeff Warner, one of the nation's foremost performer/interpreters of traditional music, will be in Ashland, Oregon, in October to receive the 2016 Country Dance and Song Society's Lifetime Contribution Award. Please join us in Ashland Oregon to celebrate Jeff and the world of traditional folk music.

Friday October 21 – House Concert; 7:00 pm; $10-20 sliding scale

Saturday October 22 – Telling the Song Workshop; The DanceSpace; 3:30-5:30 pm; $10
This singing workshop is for folks who want to sing traditional English and American songs solo and unaccompanied. If you are used to singing in public (or want to) and want to explore effective traditional techniques, bring one or more songs and Jeff will help you make the best choices to get the songs across in a supportive and fun atmosphere.

Saturday October 22 – Award Ceremony, Dinner, Sing; The Public House; 6:30 pm; $30
Help celebrate with a short award ceremony, a very nice dinner, cash bar, and lots of singing. Preregistration required.

Sunday October 23 – Big Gospel Sing; The DanceSpace; 2:00-4:00 pm; by donation
Join us in the joy of singing together: happy, thoughtful, expressive and sometimes humorous songs that sustained rural American communities--both Black and White--throughout the 19th and early 20th centuries.

All events are in Ashland

Preregistration is required for all events (except the big gospel sing)

For more information and to book tickets, contact:

Brooke Friendly – brookefriendlydance@gmail.com – 541-778-3109