

Comments on Style: From 'Notes on Dances', Vol 1 Part I

RIBBON DANCES

Pairs must hold ribbon level and try to get all ribbons at same height, pairs should try to be matched in their own heights.

In the turns, the even puts left arm through to link.

In general size of set is such that dancers touch finger tips when turned sideways on to opposite or neighbour.