

at Pinewoods Camp Packing List

camp@cdss.org
Before July 13:
413.203.5467x2
After July 13:
508.224.3480

Things to bring:

- flashlights and extra batteries (paths are not lit)
- swimsuit (the swimming is glorious)
- sweater
- raincoat/umbrella
- plenty of dance clothes (there are no washing machines or dryers at camp)
- dance shoes (please change shoes in the pavilions)
- path shoes
- towels
- bed linen (double size sheets can fit over two beds pushed together)
- blankets or a sleeping bag (nights may be cold) (pillows are provided)
- water bottle (easily refilled at camp)
- tote or shoe bag

You may want to bring:

- a battery powered or wind up alarm clock
- food (if you are on a special diet)
- insect repellent (generally not too bad)
- an ice chest and refreshments to share
- something for the opening night party
- a nice item or service idea for the auction
- festive apparel (many people like to dress up in the evenings)

Nights at camp can be chilly

and we sometimes have extended periods of rain; bring enough:

- blankets or a warm sleeping bag
- rain gear.

The few linens and blankets Pinewoods owns are for emergency use please do not depend on them.

What to leave at home, or at least in your cabin and away from camp life.

- your computers
- cell phones
- electronic games
- recorded music

Please don't bring scented products:

- perfume
- hairspray
- cologne
- aftershave

And leave your cares and worries of home and work outside camp!

The nearest stores are only a 15-20 minute drive away but experience shows that once at camp most people don't want to leave. Come prepared and enjoy!
