Tune: Waltzing with You by Molly Mason, 1992, 3/4 D

- A1 1-4 Neighbors RH turn once around
5-8 Women cross R sh and loop left into each other's places
(a serpentine move with generous curves)
- A2 1-4 Partners (now on same side) LH turn once around 5-8 Men cross L and loop R into each other's places - serpentine
(All progressed and crossed over)
- B1 1-4 Circle left once around
5-8 Partners 2-hand turn once around
- B2 1-4 1st man cast up, followed by partner, single file clockwise back home
As 2nd man cast down, followed by partner, single file clockwise to home
Step into a wavy line of 4, take RH with neighbor, women take LH in the center: 1s face down, 2s face up
- 5-6 Balance forward and back in the line of four 7 Drop hands and move forward to a new foursome
8 Step R and acknowledge new neighbor

There is ample time for the serpentine crosses. After the women turn RH w neighbor, they may wish to stretch out their diagonal line a bit beyond their foursome before they start the serpentine. Same for the men after their LH turn w partner.

The step R and acknowledge at the end of each round is just one bar, so it's brief. Its practical purpose is to keep dancers from starting the RH turn too early.

Written in honor of Gaye Fifer's start as President of CDSS, 2018
Renamed on discovering Joseph Pimentel's 3rd opus on the inauguration of a CDSS president,
Madame Fifer's Inauguration (following Mr. Hamilton's and Mr. Millstone's)
