

Ambletown

Traditional

Well now Am - ble is a fine town with ships a - bout the bay. It's fain and ve - ry fain to be there myself to - day I'm wishing in my heart I was far a - way from here; sit - ting in my par - lor a - talk - ing with my dear. And it's home dear - ie home.

And it's home I want to be. My top - sails are hoist - ed and I am bound to sea. The oak and the ash and the bon - nie birch - en tree are all grow - ing green in the north coun - try. And home dear - ie home.
